DR. GARDNER LOWERS AN OAKLAND RECORD. Runs Seven Furlongs in 1:25!-Favorites Fare Badly -McBride Buys His Release

Francisco, Cal., January 4.—Barney Schreiber's three-year-old Bannockburn-Uarda colt, Dr. Gardner, was the only favorite to score a victory at Oakland today. He won the closing race and in so doing established a new track record for seveneighths of a mile. He ran the distance in 1:251 The previous record was 1:26, held jointly by nin horses. Yellow Tail first ran it in that time December, 1899. In January, 1900, he equalled it. In February of the same year Dr. Sheppard ran it in 1:26. Then Montallade tied it in December, 1900. In December, 1901, Cruzados equalled it. Princess Titania was the next in January, 1903, then Fossi in December, 1903, Arcade in January, 1904, Atwood in April, 1904, and Letola in December, 1904. Long shots and outsiders monopolized the racing. Dixie Lad, the most heavily supported horse of the afternoon, was left at the post, through no fault of starter, however. There were numerous unsavory versals, such as Esherin, Montana Peeress and Ebel Thatcher, the last named colt's sudden improvement creating much adverse comment, which may be the subject of an official investigation.

Jockeys Waterbury and Lawrence are recent arrivals.

Jockey McBride has purchased his release from M. D. Miller and will ride hereafter as a free lance. Crosswaite, rider of Wontane Peaces, was lance. Crosswaite, rider of Montana Peeress, was fined $25 for rough riding.

ASKS THAT INDICTMENTS BE QUASHED. Judge Hart Will Hear Arguments In Tenness Betting Cases This Afternoon.

Nashville, Tenn., January 4.- In the Criminal Anderson, attorney for William Gerst, Jr., and William Hayes, indicted on a charge of bookmaking and betting on a race at Cumberland Park last Saturday in violation of the anti-betting law passed by the last legislature, filed a motion nash the indictments on the ground that the is unconstitutional. In his motion Judge Anderson pleads that the presentment shows that at time of the alleged bet or wager Hayes was a sed bookmaker and said bet or wager was made by him on the result of a race run on a licensed by him on the result of a race run on a needsed track, that the act of 1905 is invalid under Article 2, Section 15, of the constitution, which provides that no bill shall become a law which embraces more than one subject to be expressed in its face, and that the act of 1905 embraces other subjects separate and distinct from gambling or races. Gerst charged with having bet $2 and Hayes with ting $20. Judge Hart will hear arguments on the motion to quash Friday afternoon

BAKER & GENTRY HORSES TO BE SOLD

Lexington, Ky., January 4.-A thorough search through the private box and other papers of the late turfman and banker, B. Smith Gentry, failed to produce a will. His widow, Mrs. Mamie Lee Gentry, appeared before the court today and asked that his brother, Richard Gentry, be appointed ad-ministrator of the estate. He will take charge of the stockyards and various other business enter prises of the deceased, but will allow R. L. Baker the partner in the breeding and racing business of Baker & Gentry, to wind up that part of the estate.

All of the horses will be disposed of privately, if possible, and what is left will be consigned at auction, probably next fall. The stud matrons and stallions yearlings and horses in training number s, yearlings and horses in training, number about fifty head. Mr. Gentry was not part owne of the land comprising the Kingston Stud, which is now leased to C. H. Mackey, that farm proper being owned exclusively by Mr. Baker.

DAYS OF THE "RAIN FLAG" ARE RECALLED.

"Four winter racetracks in operation and another to begin next month. Just think of that, and then recall racing of twenty-five years ago, said an old-timer to a New York newspaper man.
"I remember well racing at Jerome Park when rain would cause a postponement of the sport. a rainy day if racing was postponed a flag signal-izing the fact was hoisted at the old Astor House. That saved persons from taking a trip to the track arily. Can you imagine racing being post-a these days because of a shower? No. poned in these days not for a deluge. DELMAR JOCKEY CLUB FILES ITS ANSWER.

Jefferson City, Mo., January 4. - The Delmar Jockey Club of St. Louis filed its answer to the ouster suit of Attorney-General Hadley. The jockey club declares it has complied with its charter, which required that agricultural shows be given and that exhibits of live stock be held, in that in lieu of th evercise of this franchise it has paid large sums of oney into the state treasury to the state fair fund and that this constitutes compliance with the re quirements of its charter. The answer was filed in the Supreme Court en banc and asks that the suit be dismissed without costs.

CINCINNATIANS ON A SWINDLING JAUNT. Handbooks in Southern Cities Are Fleeced in a Novel Manner by Queen City Sharpers.

Cincinnati, O., January 4.—Since the holidays a half dozen local "hustlers" have returned to the city in "glad rags" and with money they did not ss when they made a journey southward about Thanksgiving Day, and now stories are being told of the fleecing of handbooks in several cities in the outh, among them Atlanta.

Cincinnati, as is well known in turf circles, is a ort of clearing house for racing information, and in this connection the results of the races at Ascot Park and Oakland are transmitted from this city to southern points where they have a love for the sport. The possibilities presented by this condition roused the interest of these young men and they got aroused the interest of these young men and they got their heads together and whispered wise things into each other's ears. They produced a code in which "Gin Fizz," "Gin Rickey," "Marthin Cocktall," "Manhattan," "Beer," "Cherry Flip," "Whisky," "Highball" and other fancy producers of nonsense meant such and such a horse entered in this or that race at Los Angeles or San Francisco. Then two of the coterie remained here while the others journeyed

When the news of the result of a race When the news of the result or a race was re-ceived here there was a fast wire bearing the name of one of the drinks sent to one of the group in each of the southern cities to be "worked," and he, with the aid of another was to do the rest. A big killing, which made one of the Atlanta handbooks totter, was made on Druid, which horse won at Ascot recently. His synonym was "Tom and Jerry." One of the confederates was lounging about the saloon in which this particular handbook was located. He studied the charts and was busy in other ways. Then the other conspirator entered. From Cincinnati he had received a telegram containing the simple words, "Tom and Jerry." In a loud voice he asked the boy in the white jacket for one of those seductive drinks and the other fellow suddenly lost interest in the charts. He produced a big roll and placed it all on Druid.

handbook made good without registering a It was the same at other points. The same The game was worked here several months ago. It is not exactly like "first-pasting" a poolroom, but it is a near relation to that method and close kin, though more gentle, than the use of the sandbag.

BETTING IS DECLARED LEGAL IN CANADA. Decision of Lower Court in Case at Toronto Is Affirmed by Court of Appeals.

Toronto, Ont., January 4.—The Court of Appeals as sustained the decision of a lower court in holding betting to be legal within the Ontario Jockey osure at the Woodbine track. HARRY STOVER'S WINNING YOUNGSTERS.

Six races for two-year-olds-three at Ascot Park nd three at Oakland-have been run in California this year. Harry Stover's colors have been first in each of the three at Ascot Park, first in one and econd in another at Oakland. The first race at Ascot Park he won with Mabel Hollander at 100 to 1. January 2 Ray Egan won at 20 to 1, and yesterday he scored his second set of brackets at $3\frac{1}{2}$ to 1. Each of these winners was ridden by Borel, a lad in whom trainer J. M. Shields has taken quite an interest and who he says is sure to make good as a jockey. Native Son was the winner in Stover's colors at Oakland and the odds about him were as good as 8 to 1. There was 21 to 1 about Pimkin, which finished second yesterday would seem that the work-watchers at Asco Park and Oakland have been asleep.

TOO MUCH RACING, THE OLD TIMERS SAY

The conservative old-timers of the English turf are much disturbed at present, the burden of their song being that there is too much racing. They are clamoring for a return to old conditions, when racing for the week closed on Friday and when Mon day was usually an open date. They fear there is too much of professionalism in the ceaseless grind of six days' racing almost every week throughou

The complaints of this order seem conf ever, to the sportsmen of former days, and are not countenanced by the rank and file of English turf-men, who assert that the changed conditions make ential that there be as few off days in the

HAWKINS IS TRAINING HENRY WATTERSON

Memphis, Tenn., January 4.-John Fay, has his three-year-old colt, Henry the hands of Joe Hawkins, who will train him at Montgomery Park for eastern and western engage ments this year. Fay has disposed of all his thor oughbreds with this exception and will devote his time to bookmaking. He will begin his operations for 1906 at City Park.

Cincinnati, O., January 4.—The biggest handb here has suspended operations. The backers put it out of business. Too many good things have been winning since the winter tracks opened.

BONART SCORES A VICTORY

GAMELY TAKES HIS PUNISHMENT AND BEATS LITTLE GEORGE A HEAD.

Judges Request Owner Peters to Leave City Park -Gold Enamel, Under Proper Handling, Wins Crescent Park Feature.

New Orleans, La., January 4.-The two-year-old race at City Park this afternoon carried the most in-It produced a stretch duel between Bonart and Little George that drew full applause from the spectators. These two took stride for stride after turning for home and both held on gamely under the punishment they received. Troxler, by hard riding, managed to keep Bonart's head in front and he won by that margin. When the race was practically over Chamblet began to run and displayed a fine turn of speed. He was, in the vernacular, running over horses in the last sixteenth of a mile and got up in time to beat McIntyre a head for third money. While there is no intention to discredit the races of Bonart and Little George, it was evident to close observers that Chamblet was the best colt in the race. He seemed to like the going and ran much better with blinkers on. This colt has by workwatchers been considered the equal of Baleshed, but in his first two races he did not run The blinkers were used to experito expectations. ment with and in the future he will wear them. Seven horses, the property of George Hendrie, of Detroit, arrived here this morning from Cumberland Park, Nashville. They are in charge of John Walters and among them are Nat B., The Gleam Sir Andrew, the heavily backed favorite in the fifth race, burst a blood vessel just before the three-quarters was reached and Hall pulled up. The horse bled so profusely that jockey Young, who rode Mattie H., was covered with blood.

today to vacate the stalls occupied by his horses and to take his charges from the grounds forth-with. About a week ago Peters claimed Gambler out of a race in which his horse Reveille started. Peters sold Gambler to O. G. Parke, who is racing say, that Peters was acting for Parke when he claimed Gambler. The judges took the view that it would be unfair to other horsemen racing at City Park to permit one of their number to act as an agent for some one racing at the rival track.
When a horse is claimed in this manner the man from whom the horse is taken has no means of retaliating, unless he should have an agent at the other track and it is not believed that the officials at Crescent Park would permit this sort of thing.

A program of fair quality, which included a handi-ap at one mile, attracted a good attendance to Crescent Park this afternoon, despite the chilly weather. In the feature race the biggest upset of the afternoon occurred. Formaster, the heavily backed odds-on favorite, was ignominiously defeated by Gold Enamel, ridden for the first time here by a good jockey, clearly vindicating the belief of critics that under capable handling he would have won preraces lost solely through the incompetency

After Paul Clifford's victory, he was bid up to $900 by P. King, owner of Mart Gentry, which had finished second. This was an advance of $300 over finished second. his entered price. He was retained.

Ingolthrift, the beaten 4 to 5 favorite in the second race, was claimed by E. Trotter, owner of W. O'Neill, for $1,100, and was later resold to J. Powers, his former owner, at an advance of $200.

Jockey McIntre was suspended for one week by the starter for Hobedience at the post in the first race. For a similar offense yesterday Crimmins was also suspended for the same period. Jockey Freeman complained to the judges after the fourth race that O'Neill, on St. Valentine, struck him with his whip during the running of the race. EARLY RACING OF YOUNGSTERS IS DECRIED.

"When one bears in mind that there were nearly sixly yearlings named for the four races run on New Year's Day in California and New Orleans, one cannot avoid the conclusion that the murdering of the youngsters is to be prosecuted this winter on a scale more elaborate than was ever before attempted," says the Morning Telegraph. "The situation calls for some drastic remedy. The Crescent City Jockey Club was the greatest offender on New Year's Day. There were two races at the Fair Grounds. To the comparative credit of Edward Couries, but becomes the comparative credit of Edward Couries. ward Corrigan be it known there was only one at City Park. There was one each at Oakland and Ascot Park. No doubt the presence at the Fair Grounds of Burlew, trainer for Newton Benniagton, with a big bunch of juveniles bought at the Haggin Crescent the youngsters by the Burlew is a famous butcher of young Jockey Club. horses. He has these four of five years put more 2-year-olds out of business prematurely than any trainer on the American turf. Last spring he began with as fine looking a bunch of youngsters as was to be seen in all America. Before the first of September he did not have a horse of the younge brigade capable of winning an overnight condition

Went to post at 2:40. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sir Wilfred, in good form and a crackerjack, took the lead at once and, showing brilliant speed throughout, won cantering. Bribery ran to her best form and easily held second place safe. Hector finished with a rush and outstayed Hernitage. The latter was well ridden. Montanus showed early speed, but tired.

Winner—B. f. by St. Avonicus—Resignation II. (trained by O. A. Bianchi).

Went to post at 2:96. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Viola B. ran in forward contention from the start and came away like a shot right at the end. Plinkin, away striding, forced the pace to the final sixteenth and tired. Pecriess Lass finished with a rush from the rear. Grace G., away badly, closed a big gap. Yank tired badly in the last furlong. Reba was shut off early and McBride pulled up to save going down.

Scratched—Woolen, 194.

lucky at the start, ran in close pursuit of the flying pacemaker for six furlongs, then passed him at will in the stretch and was much the best. Ed Sheridan ran forwardly and gamely throughout, but finished swerving badly under a weak ride. Water Cure beat the barrier, displayed great speed in pacemaking, but tired all over at the end. Cloche d'Or loomed up menacingly on the inside midway of the stretch, where she was finally pocketed and forced to pull up. Frank Woods, practically left, closed a big gap.

Winner—B. c, by Nimrod—Wilmah G. (trained by M. Sinclair).

Went to post at 2:01. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Champ Clark, showing great improvement under a good ride, wore Goldzone down on the turn into the homestretch, finished fast and was going away at the end. Goldzone showed the most early speed, but tired when it came to the deciding drive. Adonis was probably much the best, dropped out of contention in the first quarter and closed a huge gap with a rush after going around his opponents when entering the homestretch and was going two strides to the winner's one at the end. Self Reliant ran a good race. Macgaret Angela went fairly well. Number Eleven showed speed, but quit badly.

I have seen this one work within a week past and feel amply justified in asking you to co-operate with me. You must, by this time, feel reasonably certain that I am in on the good ones and in a position to deliver to the betting public the class of inside information which has been a long felt want. I have established an organization at the various tracks which has been productive of results and I respectfully solicit your patronage to give me an opportunity to demonstrate the efficiency of this organization. The following list which represents my "occasionals" since December I can be verified by the Western Union Telegraph Company and I think is a pretty fair showing:
